

A close-up, vertical view of the headstock of a guitar. The wood is a rich, dark reddish-brown. Three gold-colored tuning pegs are visible, each with a matching gold-colored string button. Three strings are shown, extending from the buttons down the neck. The background is a soft, out-of-focus gradient of light to dark red.

Tune Your Ethics

PROTECT YOUR HARD-EARNED REPUTATION AND CAREER

FICPA Ethics Programs

Tune Your ETHICS

Protect your integrity and practice with confidence

Your professional reputation could be at risk unless you regularly update your ethics training. More than ever, professional advisors are scrutinized for their ethics and standards of care. As trusted professional advisors, CPAs need to concern themselves with jeopardizing client relationships, endangering their employment and suffering the consequences of unethical practices.

Safeguard your reputation and career

The FICPA Ethics course safeguards things that are precious to you – your reputation and career. CPAs say the FICPA Ethics course enhances their decision-making ability, raises the bar for ethical behavior and provides them with key standards for performance excellence.

Our first-rate ethics curriculum is filled with national and Florida-mandated ethics principles, case studies and frequently asked questions for important ethics matters.

Ethics: Protecting the Integrity of Florida CPAs

Choose a course format that works best for you including:

- Live seminars across the state
- Local FICPA Chapters
- Onsite at your firm/company
- Webcast
- Self-study:
 - FICPA Online
 - FICPA hard copy
 - Course downloaded from Gleim or Surgent McCoy CPE, LLC.

We know you best. The FICPA is dedicated to supporting you as a CPA. We understand your professional needs better than the rest. FICPA CPE Programs are designed by CPAs for CPAs.

For more details on any of the ethics courses above, please call the FICPA Member Service Center at (800) 342-3197 (in Florida), (850) 224-2727 or visit www.ficpa.org/ethics

PROTECT YOUR HARD-EARNED REPUTATION AND CAREER

Why Choose the FICPA Ethics courses?

1 CONVENIENT

The ethics course is available through seminars, conferences, chapter programs, accounting shows, webcasts, online, self-study or onsite at your office. The Governmental Ethics course is available through webcasts or onsite.

2 FITS YOUR SCHEDULE

These courses are offered as four-hour sessions.

3 RELEVANT

As CPAs, we know you best. The FICPA ethics course is designed by CPAs for CPAs.

4 TOP-NOTCH INSTRUCTORS

Individuals selected to teach for the FICPA have completed a train-the-trainer program specifically for the ethics course, and have proven instructional experience.

5 GREAT VALUE

We provide this course at a reasonable price, and it's scaled depending on course format.

Ethics: Protecting the Integrity of Florida CPAs (ETH) - 4980

CPE Credit: 4 Ethics hours

Course Level: Update

Dates:

City:

Course Number:

Oct. 17	Sailfish Chapter
Oct. 23	West Palm Beach	ETH065
Oct. 24	Ft. Myers	ETHFGC
Oct. 25	Webcast Replay*	ETHWBR6
Oct. 26	Tallahassee	ETHFSU
Oct. 26	Tampa	ETH070
Nov. 13	Brevard Chapter
Nov. 13	Orlando	ETH075
Nov. 14	Jacksonville Chapter
Nov. 16	Webcast Replay*	ETHWBR7
Nov. 16	Jacksonville	ETH080
Nov. 26	Miami	ETH085
Dec. 14	Webcast Replay*	ETHWBR8
Dec. 18	Ft. Lauderdale	ETH090
Jan. 11	Tampa	ETH095
Jan. 17	Webcast Replay*	ETHWBR9

* For more information or to register for an Ethics webcast, please visit www.ficpa.org/cpe/webcast

 For more information and to learn how to register for Chapter Meetings, please visit www.ficpa.org/Content/Members/Communities/Chapters.aspx

Description: Updated for 2012 to include newly-amended parts of the Code of Professional Conduct. These new or revised interpretations and rulings affect CPAs in both public accounting firms and employment in industry, government and education. This course will focus on real-life ethical issues, and addresses the internal and external issues CPAs face, such as professional standards, ethical conduct, client communication and independence. The course complies with the ethics requirements for Florida CPAs as set forth by the Florida Board of Accountancy.

Objective(s): This course is designed to help Florida licensees meet the requirements for ethics continuing education.

Major topics include:

- Case studies about ethics and situational analysis
- Questions and answers for specific issues in ethics, including mobility
- Reality applications for ethical rules as they pertain to CPAs
- Relationship of Florida laws and rules to national standards, with an emphasis on changes
- How Chapter 455, 473 Florida Statutes and 61H1 Florida Administrative Code (FAC) relate to ethics, with an emphasis on laws and rules changes
- 61H1 Florida Administrative Code (FAC) and issues affecting integrity and objectivity
- Ethical impact of commissions, contingencies, communications and competency in public accounting
- The implication of Florida's independence rules for public accounting
- AICPA Interpretation 101-3 on independence, and the differences between attest and non-attest services for clients
- Responsibilities of CPAs to their clients on confidentiality and record retention, as required by AICPA
- New rules for client data and information in Interpretation 501-1 and FAC 61H1-23, and guidelines for advertising, solicitations, use of names and responsibilities for others
- Future implications of CPAs and ethics

Live Seminar Price

Early Bird Price*: $99

Regular Price: $154

The Early Bird Price only applies if you register more than 10 days in advance. Nonmembers of the FICPA must add an additional $65 per half-day of instruction.*

FICPA Ethics Programs

Ethics Webcasts

CPE Credit: 4 Ethics hours

Course Level: Update

The Florida Institute of CPAs is proud to offer DBPR-approved ethics in webcast format online! The FICPA has partnered with the Accounting CPE Network (ACPEN) to bring you ethics CPE from the convenience of your own desk.

These online CPE courses (commonly called “webcasts”) are broadcast live, comply with NASBA CPE standards, feature a video of the speaker, slides of their presentation to follow along, links to download any written materials and a forum to post questions and comments.

Ethics: Protecting the Integrity of Florida CPAs (4980)

Date:	Oct. 25, 2012	Webcast Replay
	Nov. 16, 2012	Webcast Replay
	Dec. 14, 2012	Webcast Replay
	Jan. 17, 2013	Webcast Replay

Webcast Price: $80 for FICPA members

$125 for non-members

Please note that the login and signup process for webcasts is separate from your FICPA website login. Webcast secure login and signup is done through ACPEN and their support organizations.

FICPA Ethics Provider ID 3461

For the most current FICPA ethics information, please visit www.ficpa.org/ethics.

Ethics Self-Study Courses

CPE Credit: 4 Ethics hours

Course Level: Update

The FICPA Ethics Course is available online.

This course is available 24/7 and contains video, audio and links to the latest laws and rules in Florida. You can take this online course at your own pace. Spend just a few minutes a night working on it or complete the course in one sitting. Once you finish and pass the exam, you'll receive a certificate of completion.

The FICPA, along with partners Gleim Publications and Surgent McCoay CPE, LLC, all have ethics self-study courses available which meet the Florida Board of Accountancy ethics requirement.

Choose from hardcopy, online or downloadable formats.

For more information please visit: www.ficpa.org/ficpa/CPE/SelfStudy.

TUNE YOUR ETHICS

www.ficpa.org/ethics

(800) 342-3197 (in Florida)

(850) 224-2727

Florida Institute of Certified Public Accountants
P.O. Box 5437 • Tallahassee, Florida 32314

FICPA WEBINAR

Have you earned your Ethics CPE credit yet?

PRESORTED
STANDARD
U.S. POSTAGE

PAID

Tallahassee, FL
Permit No. 144